HE WAS MR. SOPHISTICATE, the writer of marvelous words and music that took us on “a trip to the moon on gossamer wings.” And though he was born rich and married even richer, Cole Porter’s work ethic and dedication to his craft proved to be as rigorous as that of any man on the street. This concert features mini-masterpieces such as “Begin the Beguine,” “In the Still of the Night” and “Just One of Those Things.”
